Arizona Musicfest "Night on the Nile" to benefit community music programs

Arizona Musicfest invites you to "Walk like an Egyptian" at Troon Country Club on Saturday, January 30, 2010, for a gourmet dinner accompanied by fine wines, great live music for listening and dancing, exciting silent and live auctions, plus the famous Arizona Musicfest Wine Pyramid! Dress is 'anything goes' from casual to Cleopatra for this evening of fun in an exotic "ancient Egyptian" atmosphere!

Travel down the Nile at 5:30 p.m. with cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and the best silent auction this side of Cairo; followed at 7 p.m. with a sumptuous dinner of which even Pharaoh would approve, then dancing and delectable desserts. The live auction starts at 8 p.m. with one-of-a-kind trips and luxury packages. Read the hieroglyphics on the wall and don't miss this chance to raise money for Arizona Musicfest community programs!

"Night on the Nile" benefits Arizona Musicfest concerts; underwrites performing opportunities for talented young musicians; supports daily student music programs in four school districts; and presents live classical concerts for students and families.

Tickets are $150 available through Arizona Musicfest at 480-488-0806. Troon Country Club is located at 25000 N. Windy Walk Drive, Scottsdale, AZ 85255. For additional information call Arizona Musicfest at 480-488-0806 or visit azmusicfest.org.
